

Classic Italy by Train Rome, Florence, Venice and Naples Guaranteed Departures

Tours start daily from November 01 2010– 23 March 2011

This Do-it-yourself tour is for those who want to see as much of Italy as possible through the romantic and exciting euro-star train system of Italy. This program starts from Venice and makes its way to Naples. You may also choose to do this program in the inverse if you desire.

Day 01: Benvenuti a Venezia

Welcome to Venice! Settle into the hotel class of your choice. You are free to explore Venice.

Venice was founded more than 1,500 years ago as main land refugees sought refuge from the barbarian invasions that ended the Roman Empire. These refugees built a small town “on the water” that later became a majestic and noble city that ruled much of the Mediterranean Trade traffic during the High Middle Ages and Renaissance. You will have time to visit the famous Piazza San Marco, Piazzetta San Marco, the Basilica of San Marco and even the Ducal Palace with the famous Bridge of Sighs. Guided excursions available upon request. Overnight in Venice

Day 02: Venezia

After breakfast, you are free to enjoy the day. You may also take advantage of one of our many locally offered excursions. Details on location or ask us beforehand. Italy Revealed recommends that you consider however visiting one of the three outlying islands, each famous in its own way. Murano is famous for hand-blown glass (the famous Venetian glass!), Burano for handmade lace production, and Torcello, for its history and tranquillity. Venice first began on the island of Torcello and some of the oldest buildings of the city are found here. All of the islands are easy to reach via vaporetto (a type of water “bus”) that depart from various points all around Venice and the Grand Canal. Overnight in Venice!

Day 03: On to Firenze!

After breakfast, we depart Venice via the main train station for Florence. Upon arrival, we make our way to our hotel where we will complete check-in procedures. The rest of the day is at our leisure to discover the city of art. Local optional excursions available upon request. Overnight in Florence.

Day 04: Firenze

After breakfast in Florence, you will be free for the day to explore more of the city. One can visit one of the principal museums, such as the Uffizi or Accademia, or maybe visit the nearby hilltop town of Fiesole, just a few miles from the center of Florence. It is from here that Leonardo da Vinci was said to have experimented with his flying inventions. You will also have access to many optional tours that you can sign-up and enjoy. Overnight in Florence

Day 05: On to Roma!

After breakfast, we head to the main train station of Florence and board our train to Rome! After an approximate two hour train ride, we arrive in Rome's Termini Train Station! We next check-in our hotel and begin to discover the eternal city. Optional Excursions available upon request.

Rome was founded more than 2,750 years ago. Today you can visit the Rome of the Caesars, Christian Rome, and all "Romes" in between! Overnight in Rome.

Day 06: Roma

After breakfast, the day is at your leisure to discover the eternal city. You should head over to the Roman Forum, or maybe Vatican City where you can visit the Vatican Museums. For people watching, visit the Spanish Steps, Trevi Fountain, or Piazza Navona. Optional Excursions available upon request. Overnight in Rome.

Day 07: Roma

After breakfast, you have more time in Rome. Optional excursions available upon request. Overnight in Rome.

Day 08: On to Napoli!

After breakfast, head to Naples, Italy boarding your euro-star train at Termini Station. Upon arrival, go to your hotel for check-in. The rest of the day is at your leisure.

Naples is an exciting city with much to offer. You can visit the underground Greco-Roman city, a medieval castle, or visit the Archaeological Museum where many remnants from Pompeii are housed. As pizza was also invented in Naples, you will definitely want to sample one here! Overnight in Naples!

Day 09: Napoli

After breakfast, you can take advantage of one of our optional tours or enjoy the city and environs on your own. You can easily reach Pompeii and/or Sorrento by train. You can also take a ferry out to the isle of Capri and visit this fabled and beautiful land. Overnight in Naples.

Day 10: Arrivederci Italia!

After our last Italian breakfast, our tour ends here. You can arrange to fly back to the USA via the International Airport of Naples Capodichino Airport, or continue your stay in Italy.
